

I, Richard A. Matasar, being duly sworn, hereby aver:

1. I am the Dean of New York Law School, which is fully accredited by the American Bar Association and is a member of the Association of American Law Schools.
2. New York Law School has participated in the AAMPLE Online program in the summer of 2003 and the summer of 2004.
3. Six students have been admitted to New York Law School as a result of their participation in the AAMPLE Online Program.
4. It is highly unlikely that the students admitted through the AAMPLE Online Program would have been admitted to New York Law School, but for their participation in AAMPLE Online.
5. It is unlikely that the students admitted through the AAMPLE Online Program would have been accepted at other accredited American law schools.

Title: Method for Admitting an Admissions
Applicant into an Academic Institution
Docket No. 6994-1

I, Thomas F. Guernsey, being duly sworn, hereby aver:

1. I am the President and Dean of Albany Law School of Union University, which is fully accredited by the American Bar Association and is a member of the Association of American Law Schools.
2. Albany Law School has participated in the AAMPLE Online program in the summer of 2004.
3. Seven students have been admitted to Albany Law School as a result of their participation in the AAMPLE Online Program.
4. Of the seven students admitted, one has withdrawn, and the other six have successfully completed their first semester of studies, with grade point averages ranging from a 2.29 to a 2.83.
4. It is highly unlikely that the students admitted through the AAMPLE Online Program would have been admitted to Albany Law School, but for their participation in AAMPLE Online.
5. It is unlikely that the students admitted through the AAMPLE Online Program would have been accepted at other accredited American law schools.
